Friendly vs. aggressive: Friendly people tend to have friendly dogs. Owners of friendly dogs are welcoming and kind to strangers. Owners of aggressive dogs are more likely to live isolated lives, enjoying their alone time and avoiding large groups. If your dog is aggressive this also speaks volumes to how she is trained or punished. Executing physical punishments on your dog commonly results in aggressive behavior.

What Does a Dog's Behavior Say About the Owner? | Cuteness

The dog becomes anxious when the owner prepares to leave. Misbehavior occurs in the first 15 to 45 minutes after the owner leaves. The dog wants to follow the owner around constantly. The dog tries to be touching the owner whenever possible. True separation anxiety requires dedicated training, behavior modification, and desensitization exercises. Medication may be recommended in extreme cases.

10 Common Dog Behavior Problems and Solutions

One dog owner's "begging" is another's "attention" behavior, eagerly sought-after and highly valued. Behaviors that are reinforced continue and/or increase. If you fed your dog his own dog food from the table, he would learn to beg at the table. It has nothing to do with what type of food he's being fed!

Analyzing Dog Behavior and Puppy Behavior - Whole Dog Journal

Dog behavior is the internally coordinated responses of individuals or groups of domestic dogs to internal and external stimuli. It has been shaped by millennia of contact with humans and their lifestyles. As a result of this physical and social evolution, dogs, more than any other species, have acquired the ability to understand and communicate with humans, and they are uniquely attuned in ...
